

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS, ALGOMA UNIVERSITY

Algoma University (www.algomau.ca) has a special mission “to be a teaching-oriented university that provides programs in the liberal arts and sciences and professional programs, primarily at the undergraduate level, with a particular focus on the needs of Northern Ontario, and to cultivate cross-cultural learning between Aboriginal communities and other communities, in keeping with the history of Algoma University and its geographic site.” With its beautiful main campus in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, at the heart of the Great Lakes, and extension programming in Brampton and Timmins, Algoma University offers students, faculty, administrators and staff the opportunity to live, learn, study and work together in a diverse environment.

Algoma University invites applications for a tenure track appointment in The School of Business and Economics at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, depending on experience and qualifications; the anticipated start date is July 1, 2019, or as negotiated. The ideal candidate will have a PhD in Accounting; candidates holding an MS in Accounting or an MBA, with related experience in industry or academia, will also be given strong consideration. CPA (or CPA, CA) designation is required. The successful candidate will possess expertise in one or more of the following areas: Financial Accounting, Managerial/Cost Accounting, Accounting Theory, and/or Auditing (the ability to teach in at least two of these areas is preferable). The ability to teach in a related business discipline would be an asset. Applications must include evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching and a demonstrated ability to develop an independent research program.

Candidates should submit electronically: a letter of application, a current CV, a research plan (up to two single-spaced pages), a statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching effectiveness (e.g., examples of student evaluations), and evidence of research activity / engagement to Dr. Donna M. Rogers, Academic Dean via deanapps@algomau.ca. Application materials should be submitted as a single combined PDF file. Applicants must also arrange for three letters of reference to be sent electronically. The PDF file and reference letters should have file names that identify the applicant. Applications received by close of business on January 31, 2019, will be assured of consideration, though the posting remains open until the position is filled. The position is subject to budgetary approval.

Algoma University is strongly committed to fostering diversity and inclusivity within our community and is an equal opportunity employer. The university invites and encourages applications from all qualified individuals, including from groups that are traditionally underrepresented in employment, who may contribute to further diversification of our Institution. In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005, upon request, accommodation will be provided by Algoma University throughout the recruitment, selection and/or assessment process to applicants with disabilities. The successful candidate will be required to provide a Police Records Check (Vulnerable Sector) as a condition of employment.
