Officers of Senate shall be composed of the following:

4.1 The Speaker and Deputy Speaker;

4.2 The Secretary of Senate, who shall be the University Registrar, a voting member of Senate from the Office of the Registrar.

4.3 The Speaker shall be responsible for conducting all meetings of Senate in accordance with the By-laws of Senate. The Speaker shall ensure that all meetings follow the basic rules of Robert’s Rules of Order. In the absence of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker shall conduct the meeting.

4.4 The Secretary or, in the absence of the Secretary, the Deputy Speaker, shall be responsible for recording the minutes of each meeting of Senate, and for such other duties as are stated in the By-laws.

5. Chapter 5 – Elections and Term of Office

5.1 Elections and appointments to Senate and its committees shall be made on or before the June Senate meeting of each year. The Speaker and Deputy Speaker shall be elected annually at June’s Senate meeting from among the academic staff members of Senate;

5.2 Where a vacancy occurs due to resignation or other reason, the appropriate Faculty may conduct an election to fill the vacancy for the period until

5.3 Notwithstanding Ch. 5.1 and 5.2, Part-Time Teaching Staff representatives to Senate shall be elected on or before the June Senate meeting of each year to serve a one-year term during the next Senate year.

5.4 Student members on committees of Senate shall be nominated by student senators meeting in caucus.

Senate Representation to the Board (moved from Chapter 11)

5.5 There shall be Senate Representation to the Board, elected by Senate from academic staff, in such numbers as prescribed by the By-laws of the Board. The representatives shall endeavor at all times to inform the Board of the majority opinion of the Senate in any board decisions pertaining to Senate matters. The representation shall be responsible for ensuring that Senate is informed full of:

i. The outcome of all Senate recommendations conveyed to the Board; and

ii. Any other Board matters which affect Senate, subject to the Board’s rules of confidentiality

The representatives shall have such other responsibilities as may be suggested to them from time to time by the Senate. The term of office shall be three years, once renewable.
6. Chapter 6 – Meetings

6.1 The Senate year is defined as beginning July 1.

6.2 Unless decided otherwise by Senate or by the Senate Executive Committee, meetings of Senate shall be held on the first Friday of each month except in January and September when it shall be held on the second Friday depending the calendar year. No regular meetings shall be held in July and August. Notice of the dates of these meetings shall be given to Senators through electronic communication and shall be included in the academic calendar, where they are available to the public.

6.3 Senate may hold in camera meetings when items of a personal and confidential nature are being discussed.

6.4 Unless otherwise decided by the Senate or Senate Executive Committee, regular meetings of Senate shall begin at 1:00pm, and if, after the lapse of a quarter of an hour, there is not a quorum present, the regular meeting shall be deemed lost. Meetings of Senate shall terminate at 3:00pm unless extended by a motion to continue. Such a motion requires two-thirds majority.

6.5 All meetings of Senate shall be conducted according to Robert’s Rules of Order, unless otherwise determined by Senate by two-thirds majority.

Special Meetings

6.6 A special meeting of the Senate, on the request in writing of not fewer than five (5) members, three (3) of whom must be Teaching Staff, shall be called by the Speaker, or Deputy Speaker, in the Speaker’s absence, with forty-eight (48) hours notice (excluding statutory holidays and weekends) to be given to each member of Senate. Such a meeting shall consider only business which is specified in the notice of meeting, except that new business may be introduced by the unanimous consent of the members present.

Quorum

6.7 The quorum of Senate shall be fifty (50) percent plus one of voting members of Senate, except at the May and June meetings and at any special meetings which may be called in July and August when quorum shall be one-third plus one.

6.8 To be valid and effective, all motions must be adopted at a meeting of Senate by a simple majority of the members present unless otherwise specified in the By-laws.

6.9 The Secretary shall provide each member of Senate with an agenda not fewer than seventy-two (72) hours prior to each meeting.
6.10 The agenda for each regular meeting shall be prepared by the Senate Executive Committee. Senators requesting that business be considered by the Senate shall submit all items and supporting documentation proposed for the inclusion in the agenda to the Secretary of Senate, ten (10) calendar days prior to the regularly scheduled meeting of Senate (Wednesday at noon).

6.11 Proceedings of all meetings of Senate shall be recorded. A copy of the minutes of every meeting of Senate shall be circulated with the agenda of the next meeting. At this meeting, the minutes shall be adopted after the correction and amendment, if necessary.

6.12 No motion introducing matter other than that listed in the agenda shall be taken into consideration at any regular meeting of Senate except when accepted for consideration by a two-thirds majority of the members present.

Preserving Order

6.13 The Speaker of Senate:

i. Maintains a neutral position during the Senate proceedings;
ii. Preserves order and decorum at all meetings of Senate;
iii. Ensures that Senators are given time to speak to the questions;
iv. May occasionally invite non-Senators to speak to the question or contribute to the debate.

Every member may speak a second time on the same question unless other members who have not already spoken wish to do so.

Any person who, in the opinion of the Speaker, engages in conduct unbecoming a member of Senate shall withdraw from the meeting at the request of the Speaker. In the event that such a person refuses to withdraw, the Speaker may declare a short recess, or adjourn the Senate, and may declare that the continuation of such recessed or adjourned meeting be open only to members and official observers.

Voting

6.14 No member of Senate may appoint or send proxy to act or vote in the Senate.

Electronic Voting

6.15 In exceptional circumstances where time is of the essence and there is no reasonable possibility of convening a meeting, electronic voting is permissible. The use of electronic voting is to be determined by the Senate Executive Committee, or when this is not possible, the Speaker of Senate.

In circumstances where electronic voting is necessary, the wording of the motion and any background material shall be circulated to the Senate prior to the date scheduled for the vote. Normally, a period of no less than two working days will be provided for Senators to electronically post comments and/or questions about the motion, with this electronic discussion accessible to all Senators.

Immediately following this period, Senators will be asked to vote on the motion and their votes must be recorded with the Secretary of Senate on or before a specific date and time. Voting will be on the motion as presented. The result of the electronic vote shall be transmitted to the Senate and the number votes shall be reported in the minutes. Senators may request that their own vote be reported in the minutes.

Note that in cases where secret ballots are necessary, the Senate Executive will consult with the Information Technology department to ensure the anonymity of the responses.

Meeting in Camera

6.16 When the Senate declares a meeting or part of a meeting in camera, reasons for so declaring will be clearly stated by the Speaker of Senate prior to moving in camera. Where the Senate has resolved to move in camera, the room shall be cleared except for all members of the Senate and individuals requested by the Speaker to stay for purposes of assisting the Senate with its deliberations.

Only person entitled to be present in camera meetings may be informed of the proceedings that transpire. Accordingly, items of business dealt with by the Senate in camera shall appear as appendices to the record and shall be recorded in a separate set of minutes, available only to members of Senate.

If any motions are passed in camera, upon returning to the open meeting, the Speaker will ask Senators for a motion to record the approval of those in camera motions in a manner that does not release confidential information.

7. Chapter 7 – Amendment of By-laws

7.1 By-laws of Senate shall be adopted or amended by a two-thirds majority vote of all voting members at a regular meeting of Senate upon notice of motion duly made at a regular meeting of Senate.

8. Chapter 8 – Committees of Senate

8.1 There shall be the following standing committees of Senate:

- Senate Executive Committee;
- Academic Planning and Priorities Committee;
- Academic Standards and Appeals Committee;
- Curriculum Committee;
- Board – Senate Liaison Committee;
- Academic Regulations and Petitions Committee;
- Decanal Review/Search Committee;
- Quality Assurance Committee;
- Research Advisory Committee;
j. Teaching & Learning and Technical Support Committee;

8.2 The quorum for each committee shall be one-half of the voting membership of that committee.

8.3 The President and Academic Dean shall be ex-officio members of every committee of Senate, unless otherwise stated in the By-laws.

8.4 Vacancies occurring in any committee of Senate shall be those of Senate.

8.5 The procedures of all committees of Senate shall be those of Senate.

8.6 Senate committees shall have the power to appoint advisors or consultants or to request their assistance, except that such persons shall not be members nor have any of the privileges of members.

8.7 Committees shall report in all instances directly to Senate except that they may report to other Senate committees at their request. In this latter case, the report must be conveyed to Senate as well.

8.8 All Senate committees shall serve for a one-year term commencing July 1, with the exception of Ad Hoc and Special Committees (eg. Decanal Review/Search Committee), the Quality Assurance Committee, and the Research Advisory Committee whose terms shall be set by Senate in such Committee's Terms of Reference.

8.9 The Senate may, from time to time, strike ad hoc committees to deal with matters not appropriately or adequately served by the standing committees.

9. Chapter 9 – Chairs of Senate Committees

9.1 When membership to the Senate Committee has been identified and approved, the committee member whose last name is first in alphabetical order shall be responsible for scheduling the first meeting of the committee in the new Senate year. The first order of business for Senate Committees is to elect a Chair.

In all cases, the Committee Chair must be member of Senate.

The Committee Chair is responsible:

i. To ensure that the mandate of the committee is followed and that the business conducted in an orderly and productive manner through regular meetings;

ii. To report the business of the committee to Senate, for example, a report at Senate containing recommendations in the form of a motion;

iii. To provide the committees annual report, typically, at the June meeting of Senate.
