

CONTINUING EDUCATION TEACHER

ALGOMA UNIVERSITY WINTER 2021 DUAL CREDIT PROGRAM

April 26 – May 28, 2021 [online synchronous delivery]
Three days per week [after 4:00pm] and experiential learning course requirements during the weekends
[approx. 22 hours per week]

The Algoma District School Board, Algoma University, and the Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board are collaborating to offer an experiential learning opportunity to students finishing their third year of high school. This opportunity will allow students who might not normally consider university as a post secondary destination to experience what university is like, while earning the high school credit HSE4M: Equity and Social Justice: From Theory to Practice via online synchronous delivery.

We are seeking a dynamic, caring, and creative secondary school educator who is able to work with students, parents, university faculty members, and Indigenous communities during an innovative and collaborative secondary summer school program.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Current Ontario College of Teachers Certification with senior qualifications in any subject area
- Experience teaching HSE4M in a compressed format

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS AND SKILLS:

- Proficiency in the use of the Learning Management System (LMS)
- Willingness to attend training on the Learning Management System (LMS)
- Experience working with Indigenous students, families, and communities
- Ability to work collaboratively with a wide variety of people, including university faculty members and administrators, student leaders, peer mentors, and Indigenous partners
- Commitment to supporting and advocating for students at risk
- Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills

Shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview; interviews will be held on the afternoon of Thursday, January 28. Please submit your letter of interest, an updated resume, and a current Ontario College of Teachers Record of Qualification by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, January 22, 2021 to the attention of:
